

CHIRP

CASE HOUSE OF IIM RAIPUR

CASE | 10 MINUTES READ | 6 PAGES

Playing with Fire: Recruitment of Teachers for Government schools

VENKATESH NAMANI<sup>1</sup> | SUNEETHA SAGGURTHI<sup>2</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Indian Administrative Service

<sup>2</sup> Human Resources Management and Organizational Behavior Area, Indian Institute of Management Raipur, India

This case is solely to provide material for class discussion. The authors do not intend to illustrate either effective or ineffective handling of a managerial situation. The authors may have disguised certain names and other identifying information to protect confidentiality. This publication may not be transmitted, photocopied, digitized, or otherwise reproduced in any form or by any means without the permission of the copyright holder.

Copyright © 2023, Indian Institute of Management Raipur, Version:2024-March-22

Synopsis

This case focuses on the precarious situation that 'teachers recruitment boards' are in as they work towards their objective of an unbiased and transparent recruitment process. There is always a 'Damocles' sword' of inquiries and court cases that hang on the head of the person leading the recruitment board. The case deals with how a complex situation that arose while making a shift from OMR sheets-based exams to computer-based exams for teachers' recruitment was navigated. It also talks on how the crisis that occurred while conducting the exam was handled by the protagonist.

---

RELATED PRODUCTS

1) Teaching Note: Product Number- CHIRP-11881-TN